2. What were your expectations of attending the event?

claire.bedford@wandletrust.org	To learn more about the Ketso tool and how it can be applied and adapted to different public consultation scenarios. Also, its strengths and possible weaknesses. Plus how to collate and analyse the data acquired using the excel spreadsheet. To see it being used by experienced facilitators, to get a real sense of how it works in real time.
john.lee@mmu.ac.uk	Interested in new teaching method.
jane.kettle@heacademy.ac.uk	SEeing a teaching tool in action

4. Do you have any comments on how your expectations were met?

claire.bedford@wandletrust.org	The morning part of the event was only partially useful as it was pitched at teachers and academics quite heavily. However, the time spent doing the afternoon exercise, and private conversation time with the Ketso team after the event really addressed my interests and questions very thoroughly.
john.lee@mmu.ac.uk	Did more than I expected.
jane.kettle@heacademy.ac.uk	This has applicability across a range of disciplines/contexts, very interesting indeed otanochab@yahoo.com	Considering the "Stakeholders' Initiative".

5. What was the most useful or meaningful idea you took away from the event?

claire.bedford@wandletrust.org	How to divide up a single workshop into an initial one that develops the general themes followed by a separate workshop to create a more detailed action plan - to produce the level of information we require for our particular project.
john.lee@mmu.ac.uk	Enabling group work to happen efficiently and in ways which promoted learning.
jane.kettle@heacademy.ac.uk	This is a methodological approach as well as a teaching tool
Anonymous	how Ketso made a visual picture of a project and any missing links it may have or develop bella.davies@wandletrust.org	How to apply Ketso otanochab@yahoo.com	The "Stakeholders have the SOLUTION"!
philipkargbo2003@yahoo.com	gaining useful ideas from independent group brainstorming

6. What might you do differently in the future as a result of attending the event?

claire.bedford@wandletrust.org	Divide up workshop priorities and focus (as described above).
john.lee@mmu.ac.uk	Use the Ketso method sometimes.
bella.davies@wandletrust.org	Use Ketso in community consultation events as well as planning for our charity's work.
otanochab@yahoo.com	Better ways of engaging and facilitating my 'TEAM' and a broader scope of my research focus.
philipkargbo2003@yahoo.com	Will be able to facilitate a group and garner useful ideas from them about development projects and plans
